

Commission Agreements

How long does it take you to calculate a commission and print a check?

Commissions are all handled automatically in Broker Office Solutions. You simply need to enter the commission structure on the agent page and when you close out a transaction the commissions will calculate automatically. The system will even remind you when agents need to move up to the next tier in a tiered commission structure. Usually checks can be calculated in just a few seconds no matter how complicated the commission structure!