

Transaction Statistics

How long would it take you to tell me exactly how many listings you have? How about earnest money in the trust account?

Since all of your information is saved in a database, it is at-a-glance easy to know how many listings, or homes under contract you are representing and their value. You have the ability to organize the information in just about however you want it as well as export in in PDF and excel format.